Featured Educator: Greg Forbes Siegman

Determined to be more than a bystander, Greg started a weekly brunch program to increase dialogue in his community. Over 700 of his students and neighbors participated in the program. Along the way, he began raising funds to help students fulfill their academic dreams and has continued those efforts for 20 years. Greg has received honors such as the Jefferson Award for Public Service and has been featured on Good Morning America. His story serves as the basis for The Silhouette Man. For more information about Greg, visit his website www.GregForbes.com.

The mission of the Wassmuth Center for Human Rights is to promote respect for human dignity and diversity through education and to foster individual responsibility to work for peace and justice.
